Audio CD With Vedic Hymns For The Expectant Mother

Info Vedic Services Pvt. Ltd., Mylapore has come out with an audio CD OJAS with Vedic Hymns for the expectant mother. The unique features of the CD are hymns from Yajur Veda addressed to several deities who are sources of energy. These powerful Mantras impact the delicate cells of the human nervous system and the energy from cosmos to the mother and the child. Gods and Deities are the sources of this cosmic energy. Each deity controls a distinct and different energy, which may be health, wealth, intelligence, knowledge, success, fame, charisma or longevity. Sounds heard by the child in the womb provide the foundation for future learning and behavior. The foetus hears and responds to a sound impulse starting from the sixteenth week of conception. Listening to Vedic Mantras with swaras nourishes and stimulates the body, the emotion, the intellect and the spirit of the mother and the child. Chanting and listening to Mantras can generate energy powerful enough to change the destiny of our lives. With love, affection, positive environment and right nurturing, the child can become a Champion and a Genius. Mantras generate positive energy, drive away negative energies of jealousy, enmity and ill will, enable delivery of the child at the right time and bring health, happiness, intelligence, knowledge and wealth to the child and the entire family.
